

Michael Skloff is a highly acclaimed songwriter and composer most widely known for his TV themes. His theme song to the series, FRIENDS- "I'll Be There For You" was #1 on both of Billboard Magazine's Pop and Adult Contemporary charts. He received an Emmy Award nomination for this work and also for his main title theme to HBO's popular comedy series, DREAM ON. Michael's score can currently be heard on the Netflix hit comedy series, GRACE AND FRANKIE, for which he's composed since its 2014 inception. Other TV themes and underscores include VERONICA'S CLOSET, JESSE, and BOB PATTERSON starring Jason Alexander. He is the recipient of multiple ASCAP Film and Television Music Awards for Most Performed Themes. As a film score composer, Michael's worked with directors: John Landis, Jason Gould, Jason Alexander, Roberta Grossman, Sophie Sartain, among others. He was vocal arranger and co-producer of Randy Newman's songs in Disney's feature film "JAMES AND THE GIANT PEACH". Michael has produced, arranged, and collaborated with a number of notable artists, and in many cases releasing their work on his label, Electric Monkey Records. Michael also writes liturgical music, and his original setting of the Hebrew prayer K'dusha is sung in Jewish congregations throughout North America.